Dear Soon-To-Be Fourth Graders,

In preparation for next year, please read at least two books over the summer.

Please read No Talking, by Andrew Clements. No Talking raises the question: Who talks less, boys or girls? Fifth graders at Laketon Elementary School want to find out!

After you read No Talking, please create a comic strip that details six important events from the novel. Each box of the comic strip must include an illustration and a two-sentence caption.

For your second book, feel free to choose anything that appeals to you! Whichever book you choose, write a letter that includes the title and author of the book, a brief summary, and your opinion of the book.

Please bring both assignments with you on the first day of school.

Happy Reading!
